ABOUT US

Select*Elect was originally born as a bimonthly warehouse party in London during 2007. A collective of like minded people who came together through a shared love of music, and the combined purpose: to create unique experiences through putting on underground dance music events. Select*Elect parties have taken place in such innovative spaces as disused lofts, basements, and abandoned warehouses in and around the East London. Parties have ranged from 500 to over a 1000 people.

With a music policy centered around providing the perfect underground dance soundtrack for such innovative spaces, our open minded musical approach covers such genres as House, Jazz, Techno, Disco, and Soul. Select*Elect's musical approach is based around pushing fresh talent, alongside respected and already established artists. An ethos that can be seen in both the previous guests whom have played at the party, and our choice of residents. The extension of this has been through developing great relationships, and a mutual respect with leading underground labels. This carefully curated musical balance continues to create the perfect experience at our parties.

Dedication, hard work, good industry relations, attention to detail, and most of all 'togetherness' have helped us to stand out from the crowd in creating special moments driven by music & people.

BERLIN

Since Select*Elect has left an imprint among the electronic music scenario of few European cities, the settling of the project in Berlin involves specific working ethos that would improve the musical setting among the city's musical influence. Berlin is an opportunity for Select*Elect to explore and develop new musical territories that have been unexplored so far. Moreover, being part of a vibrant scenario as that one of Berlin would recognize the effort that the team has invested to create human experiences within music & entertainment.

The team behind Select*Elect have 2012 located to Berlin. Since 2013 several events took place and further projects will see the light soon.

RESIDENTS

Select*Elect works incredibly hard to nurture, promote, and represent our artists and djs to the best of our ability. A core understanding that both the party and its residents are mutually exclusive in continued growth. Our careful choice of residents matches our event ethos, those who understand how to deliver the perfect musical vibe in creating unforgettable Select*Elect parties.

ANNDERS

Formerly known for his "We are jojo" radio shows, Annders is an eclectic digger who spamm from house, Balearic & techno. He has already appeared in few good spots around Europe, plus few off locations in Berlin.

D.BIRD

Dani has somehow a taste that spam between funky,house, jazz & techno. After living for few years in France, he finally settled in Barcelona where he's a regular among the catalan electronic scene & afterhours.

LAMB ENT

formerly known as DER. His musical journey landed in Berlin almost a year ago focusing on deep and trippy house music. Lamb Ent has no musical boundaries to keep the people dancing.

PLASTIC PIKE

comes out of the deep sea of Northern Germany. A first signing on Full Intention Records in 2014 is the kickoff start for the project. Bringing the right bait for every situation and mixing old school, deep melodic tunes with Detroit influenced house and techno is the pikes brand.

FEDERICO FARINA

Listening a huge variety of music and surrounded by the flow of new rhythms, such as funky, house, soul, deep, techno, down tempo, ambient and dubstep, he developed an exquisite groovy fresh sound full of melodies that leaves the dacefloor flying or pumping for sure.

DALIYAMA

Daliyama performs live electronic music. Using nothing but synths, bass guitar and drums, the trio turns music that's generally pre-produced, into a fully improvised live set. Daliyama is in never ending search for musical innovation. In this way, they wish to create the sound of 2015, in a way no one has ever seen or heard before. Dance, space, experiment.
